

San Isidro Festival 2009 Cook-off
Saturday, April 25
General Rules

1. Each participant will furnish their own:
 - a. Ingredients
 - b. Pans, cooker, BBQ pits, and utensils
 - c. Firewood, charcoal, and all necessary equipment.Cooking may start as early as 7:00 a.m.
2. All preparation of food entry items will be done on contest site. To be turned in for judging: 3lbs of cooked beef ribs, fajitas, and pork ribs; 2 qts of carne guisada, and chili; 3 pan de campo. Proper containers will be provided at registration.
3. No more than 4 members to a team.
4. Contest site will open on Saturday, April 25th at 5:30 a.m. All sites will be first come, first serve. Because of limited space, only one vehicle per camp site will be allowed. No excessive moving of vehicles will be tolerated.
5. Entry fee is $40.00 per entry in each category by individual or by sponsor. Fees are to be paid at registration from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on day of event.
6. A custom made buckle will be awarded for the 1st Place in every category. An engraved Dutch Oven will be awarded for the 2nd Place in every category. An engraved 2-sided Griddle will be awarded for the 3rd Place in every category. A set of 4 buckles will be awarded to the High-Point Team at the end of the Auction. The Jackpot of 60% of the PORK RIBS entry-fees will be awarded to the 1st and 2nd place PORK RIB winners (40% to 1st Place, 20% to 2nd Place.)
7. Judging will be at 12:00 p.m., 1:00 p.m., and 2:00 p.m. and continue until all items are judged. Specific times will be posted on site.
8. Entries will be judged on flavor, tenderness, and appearance. Winners will be announced at 3:00 p.m. at the auction site.
9. Beef Fajitas, Beef Ribs, Beef Carne Guisada, Beef Chili, Frijoles/Pinto Beans, and Pan de Campo are the official categories of the Cook-off.

10. The decision of the judges will be final. The Catholic Church, Festival Committee, Cook-off Committee and volunteers are not responsible for loss of items or accidents while participating at the San Isidro Festival and/or Cook-off.